

2 November 1983

STAT

My world travels will preclude me from attending your retirement party but I do want to wish you the very best in your new endeavors and hope that all goes well with you.

STAT

I often think of my visits  and particularly the cold, snowy time I spent with you up there. It's amazing how time flies since that was well over 15 years ago.

I'm confident that whether you decide to continue working or play you will get the most out of it, much as you have done with a very rewarding career in the Agency.

Good luck--we will miss you.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

STAT

In deference to [REDACTED] proud heritage, it should be remembered that the EDR charges extra if people hang about after 1945 hours. Furthermore, EDR must know how many are coming to the party 48 hours in advance. That would be 1730 hours on the 14th--a Monday after a 3-day weekend. So let's play it Scot-safe--make reservations no later than Thursday, 10 November. Make checks payable to Executive Dining Poom Fund.
